STUHR
MUSEUM
OF THE PRAIRIE PIONEER

A Place Like No Other For Your Event

Whether you are planning a company picnic for 1,000 or an elegant dinner for 25, Stuhr Museum has just the atmosphere and site you're looking for! Located on 200 beautiful acres of Nebraska prairie, 4 minutes from I-80, Stuhr Museum offers ample parking, an easy-to-find location, indoor and outdoor facilities both historical and modern and flexibility to accommodate your event — whatever it might be.

While dozens of locations are available, some of our most popular sites include the Stuhr Building designed by Kennedy Center architect Edward Durell Stone, the beautiful and lush Hornady Family Arbor and the Immanuel Evangelical Lutheran church, perfect for smaller gatherings and special events! The only limitation is your imagination. Stuhr Museum also offers dozens of programs including birthday parties, our special Programs on the Prairie, rentals for day or week long employee training, facilities to accommodate caterers, a small auditorium and more. To learn all about how Stuhr Museum can adapt to your event, contact Renae Hunt at (308) 385-5316 ext. 205 or via e-mail at rhunt@stuhrmuseum.org.
